

AccreditationComplaint Policy

In compliance with the standards set forth bynnmission on Steopathic College Accreditation (COCA), the University of New England College of Osteopathic Medicine (UNE COM) rthan following procedure for anyon how wishes to file a complaint about the school's ability to meet accreditation standards or adhere to the merican Osteopathic Association policies and procedure.

- x Studentsand others should familiarize themselves with tl@OCA Standards the COCA websitewww.osteopathic.org.
- x Individuals wishing to submit a complaint should prepare a statement in writing identifying the nature of thecomplaint, standard(s) violateand specific factual information when pertinent (times, places, persons involved).
- x The complaint should be submitted to the an College of Osteopathic Medicine and Vice President Health Affairs, Stella Maris Hall, 11 Hills Beach Road, Biddeford, Maine 04005
- x In addition to the written complaint, the ndividual filing the complaint is also welcome to make an appointment to meet with the appropriate school administrator(s) to discuss the implaint(s) and options for resolution.
- x The Dean will work with appropriate administrators, committees staff to resolve the liatory action