Student Clinic

Goals:

The goabf the Student Clinic is to the student direct patient care experience under the guidance of preceptors. Students will be present for at least two patient care sessions. This experiences aimed at ntegration of osteopathic principles in patient care.

Objectives:

Uponconclusion of this experience the student should be able to:

- Conduct a focused/targeted history including chief complaint, history of present illness, past medical/family/surgical/trauma history, medications, medical allergies, social history and targeted review of systems
- 2. Accurately assess patient vital signs.
- 3. Perform a targeted physical exam.
- 4. Perform an osteopathic structural exam as part of an integrated physical exam.
- 5. Verbally present the patient to the attending in an accurate and concise manner.
- 7. Perform Osteopathic Manipulative Treatment with the guidance of the preceptor.
- 8. Address family medicine issues appropriately.

Expectations:

The student.998 96 (ent w)-8VT Tc TD [(Thexp2)2f 0 MCID 14 2 0 MCID 15.43 Td e .007 (e)8ggp2ATd 81 MCID93 (o)-5

- i XThe studentwill promptly report to the clinic inprofessional dreswith white coat and medical equipment (minimum = reflex hammer & stethoscope).
- î XThe studentwill build rapport with patients, attendingand staff.
- ï XThe studentwill conduct themselves in a professional manner assutlined in the UNECOMstudent manual.
- ð Xd Z•šμ Áş quo] v š % ν š] v š $\}$ ν (] šν δ þ α δ]] šu Ç• ‰ $\}$ Ç ş τ δ Pv š ξ $\}$, ν W W Pμ] ο] ν ε Z ‰ š] ν έ wishes.
- ñ X d Z š μ Á § o)ov š Œ μ ‰ ‰ Œ } ‰ Œ [] Œ ‰ Z š]s α hàu[t on each patient seen (H& Por new patients, SOAP notes for established patients)v Æ š Ç Ç (šī thow date of the patient encounter.

Evaluation:

Students will be evaluated it in the followinage as W

- 1. Patient Encounter Notes
 - a. Each student will be expectiladjustments may be necessary and the student(s) will be expected to make the } u % CE š } (š Z % š] v š [% CE u v v š CE } CE X
 - b. Students should turn in all notes to the student clinic secretary, Nancy Goulet (hard copy or email).
- 2. Professionalism
 - a. Students are expected to adhere to the standards of professionalism outlined in the UNECOM student man
 - b. Students are expected to adhere to national HIPPA guidelines at all times.
 - c. Students are expected to be present for all session to which they are assigned.
 - d.